Holy Qur'an (Surah Al-Humazah)

1. In the name of Allāh, the Gracious, the Merciful.
2. Woe to every backbiter, slanderer,
3. Who amasses wealth and counts it time after time.
4. He thinks that his wealth will make him immortal.
- * 5. Nay! he shall surely be cast into the crushing punishment.
- * 6. And what should make thee know what the crushing punishment is?
7. It is Allāh's kindled fire,
- * 8. Which rises over the hearts.
- * 9. It will be closed in on them
- * 10. In the form of extended columns.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ﴿١﴾
وَيْلٌ لِّكُلِّ هُمَزَةٍ لُّمَزَةٍ ﴿٢﴾
الَّذِي جَمَعَ مَالًا وَعَدَّدَهُ ﴿٣﴾
يَحْسَبُ أَنَّ مَالَهُ أَخْلَدَهُ ﴿٤﴾
كَلَّا لَيُنْبَذَنَّ فِي الْحُطَمَةِ ﴿٥﴾
وَمَا أَذْرَكَ مَا الْحُطَمَةُ ﴿٦﴾
نَارُ اللَّهِ الْمَوْقَدَةُ ﴿٧﴾
الَّتِي تَطَّلِعُ عَلَى الْأَفْئِدَةِ ﴿٨﴾
إِنَّهَا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّوَصَّدَةٌ ﴿٩﴾
فِي عَمَدٍ مُمَدَّدَةٍ ﴿١٠﴾

Hadith

إِنَّمَا الْأَعْمَالُ بِالنِّيَّةِ

Inna mal a'maalu binniyyaat

Deeds are judged by motives

Discussion points:

The reward from Allah the Almighty is based on a person's actions and intentions.

Some acts are done by sheer force of habit, some in imitation of other people, and some for show and advertisement.

For example, some people fast because the people around them do so, or some people perform Hajj so they can be known as pious. A false act, however virtuous it may appear to be, cannot be deserving of any reward from Allah.

Can you think of more examples?

Is it enough to believe in God without accepting a religion or a prophet?

- Every sensible person would realise that such a doctrine reduces the advent of Prophets, peace be upon them, to be an exercise in futility and fruitlessness. If one could still attain salvation through belief in God being One even while refuting and opposing the Prophets, peace be upon them, would this not perforce mean that the Prophets were sent to the world in vain—even without them the task could be managed—and there was no great need for their advent? ....
- It is not hidden from even a person with minimal intellect that since the days of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them, up to now, all sects of Islam agree that, indeed, the essence of Islam is that just as a person deems God to be One without a partner and believes in His Being, Existence, and Oneness, so is it obligatory upon him to believe in the Prophethood of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him. Furthermore, he must believe in whatever is laid down and recorded in the Holy Quran.....

- Many sincere Muslims who had been captured by the disbelievers in the time of the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, were repeatedly told that they would be released if they renounced the Holy Prophet, may peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, but they did not renounce him and laid down their lives in this very path....
- A close study of all the Scriptures revealed by God Almighty shows that all the Prophets have admonished the same thing: believe in God Almighty to be One without partner and, along with it, also believe in God's Messengers. ..
- It should also be borne in mind that it is only the Prophets, peace be on them, who demonstrate the existence of God and teach people that He is the One without any partner. If these holy ones had not appeared in the world, it would have been an implausible and impossible matter to find the straight path with certainty. Though a person of pure nature and sound mind can, by reflecting on the earth and heaven and observing their perfect and firm order, conclude that there ought to be a Creator of this work full of wisdom; but, there is a great difference between the statement that 'there ought to be [a Creator]' and 'He really does exist'. It is only the Prophets, peace be on them, who established through thousands of Signs and miracles that the Being, who is Transcendent and comprises all power, does in fact exist....”

Abid Khan Sahib's Diary.

Following the conclusion of the meeting there was a break for a few minutes, during which myself and a few other of the Qafila members remained in the room with Huzoor. Huzoor told me to show him my new phone, which I had purchased the day before. I was amazed that, despite being in the middle of so many meetings, Huzoor still remembered that I had bought a new phone. Upon seeing it, Huzoor said: "It appears that you have not checked your emails or Whatsapp messages for a while as there are many unread emails and messages!" Thereafter, Huzoor continued to use my phone for a few minutes, until the next meeting.

Later in the day, on a couple of further occasions, when there were brief breaks or interludes, Huzoor again asked for my phone before returning it to me for the final time during the lunch break. When I checked it, I noticed that Huzoor had downloaded a dictionary app for me. In the past, Huzoor had done the same on my old phone and so Huzoor gave the same blessing to my new phone as well. Those moments where Huzoor scrolled through the phone showed me that Khalifa-Waqt was not overawed by any location, no matter how vast or historic. Despite meeting with Ministers and Senators, Huzoor remained very relaxed and even found the time to download a dictionary app for me! In years to come, Insha'Allah, I will enjoy telling the story that a few moments before meeting Prime Minister Trudeau and being officially recognised in Canada's House of Commons, our beloved Khalifa was reminding me to check my Whatsapp messages and ensuring that I had easy access to an online dictionary!

What do we learn from this?
