The Holy Qur'an |

قُلْ يُعْبَادِي الَّذِينَ أُسْرِفُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ
لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِنْ رَحْمَةِ اللَّهِ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ
يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا ۖ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ
الرَّحِيمُ

"Say, "O My servants who have committed excesses against their own souls! despair not of the mercy of Allah, surely Allah forgives all sins. Verily He is Most Forgiving, Merciful."

– The Holy Quran | Chapter 39, Verse 54

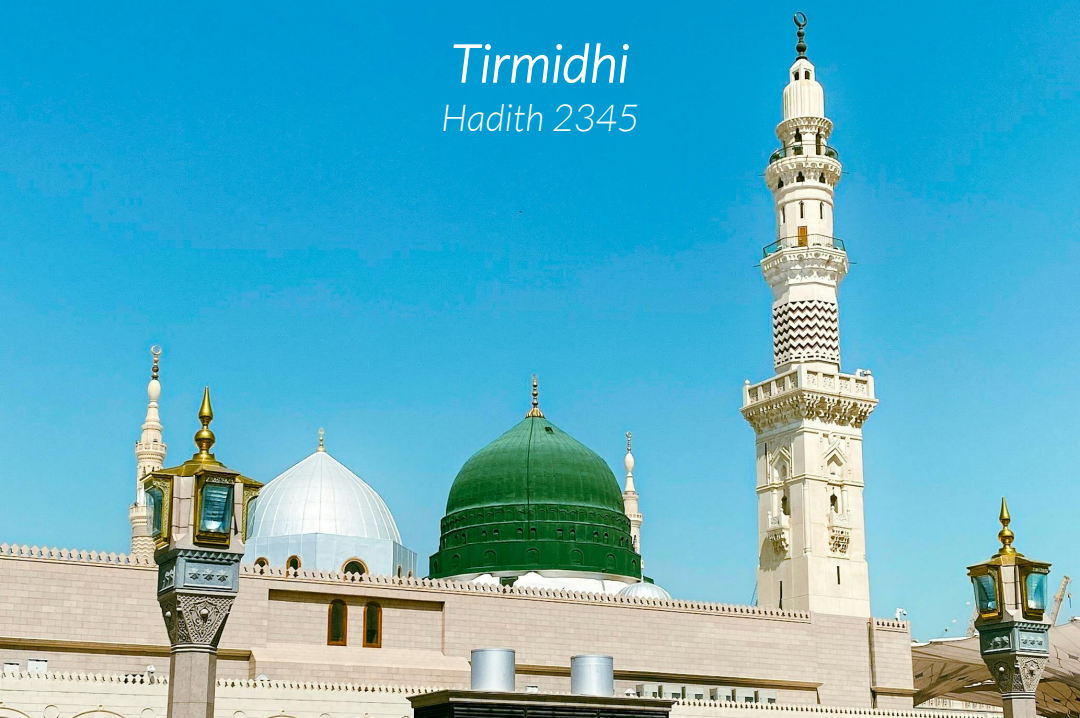

| Hadith

Hazrat Anas ibn Malik ^(RA) relates that there were two brothers during the time of the Holy Prophet ﷺ. One of the brothers used to attend upon the Holy Prophet ﷺ, and the other used to occupy himself with his profession.

On one occasion the working brother complained to the Holy Prophet ﷺ about his non-working brother, saying that he paid no attention to earning his keep. The Prophet ﷺ said: “Perhaps it is because of him that you are being provided for”.

Tirmidhi
Hadith 2345

Writings of the Promised Messiah ^{AS}

“Be mindful that, in my estimation the scope of sympathy is very wide. One should not exclude any group or individual. I do not say – like the ignorant people of this age – that you should limit your kindness to only Muslims. I say that you should have sympathy for all of God’s creation no matter who they are, whether a Hindu, or a Muslim, or someone else. I never approve of the words of such people who wish to limit sympathy only to their own people.”

Malfuzaat (1988) | Vol. 4, pg. 217

| Pearls of Wisdom

“No matter what, an Ahmadi Muslim should never take refuge in falsehood. Aside from social media, people often lie to save themselves from the anger or judgement of their parents, teachers, or work superiors.”

“Such people do not realise that lying is a sin of immense magnitude. Indeed, if a person believes in God, he can only shudder at the very thought of the consequences of falsehood given that Allah the Almighty has deemed it to be the equivalent of Shirk – that is associating partners with Him.”

– Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad ^{ABA} (Khalifatul Masih V)
